Exodus 11.1

I Have Nothing to Do with the Outcome of My Efforts,
Only My Efforts

1. As we deal with the challenges of this world we must choose to be in a daily quest to:
 - a. Learn to _____ God
 - b. Learn to _____ God
 - c. Learn to give God the _____
2. The challenges of this life can distract me so I take my eyes off my faith in God and focus on my _____ for me.
3. Don't allow difficult circumstances to distract or discourage you; _____ the course you know God has you on.
4. Let's remember two things:
 - a. God could have easily, even instantly, rescued the Israelites out of Egypt in response to the first plague (or before). God didn't _____ a plague to intimidate Pharaoh.
 - b. It was God's sovereign _____ to use this time of plagues and conflicts for a greater good for the entire future of mankind.
5. Our Father uses His power in our difficult circumstances to:
 - a. _____ us back to Him
 - b. Give us _____ in His unsurpassed strength.
 - c. Give us a story ... opportunities to _____ others about Him.
6. Our Father uses His power to draw the _____ generation to Him.

Exodus 12:26 "And when your children say to you, 'What do you mean by this service?'"

ESV

Joshua 4:6 "...that this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come, 'What do those stones mean to you?'"

ESV

7. Our Father reveals His power so all the world can _____ there is a Creator God.
8. Ironically, the people of the world either:
 - _____ Him
 - _____ Him
 - _____ Him
 - _____ Him or even the mention of Him
9. Amazingly, God doesn't need us for anything and yet the One Who created everything in only a week, waits patiently for His creation to love Him. Our Father loves us _____ that much.
10. God loves each of us, His children, so much that He allows each of us the privilege of the training to learn we can trust Him completely with _____ in our lives.
