SHERIDAN HOUSE
Honoring Christ by Serving the Needs of Children and Families

CELEBRATING ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL GRADUATION!

The initial step in enrolling a boy into the Sheridan House Residential Program is to call and speak with a staff member about the hardships relating to their child's behavior. It is never an easy decision to reach out for help, to admit you don't have all the answers, to entrust your child to the care of others, and to take a leap of faith. Kyle's parents, George and Andrea, expressed their emotions involved in making such a monumental decision:

"As a parent, this can be a very difficult choice and decision to make. We labored and prayed over it for months. When the door did open, we found it to be a great temporary home for Kyle, providing exactly the support and structure he needed in his life. In addition, the right tools for us as parents to align more and have a better plan to deal with what we had on our plates...We are forever grateful for Sheridan House and the life changing experience it provided for Kyle and our family. Kyle is still maturing but with new wisdom, life skills, and a deeper faith."

Parents who have made the decision to enroll their child in Sheridan House often describe it as one of the most crucial and challenging decisions of their lives —yet also one they never regret.

When Kyle joined our program, he was adamant that the Residential Program was not something he needed (or wanted) in his life, as most boys express. Yet the proof of his need for change was evident in his behaviors at home and school. He was hanging with the “wrong crowd” and making detrimental decisions that would in the long run affect his physical, emotional, and spiritual health. His parents knew his potential and did not give up on him, because of their love for him. They chose to take action and travel a nearly impossible path, by deciding to call Sheridan House for help.

After self-reflection, Kyle was able to admit that he pushed his parents to this point and he needed change in his life. He saw his parents’ love for him and saw what he needed to do to graduate from the program. He displayed a growth mindset and zeroed in on the behaviors to eradicate. In addition, he soared in his academics with straight A’s for the year. After only seven months in the program, Kyle returned to his family with sights on a prestigious school, where he was eventually accepted.

Parents who have made the decision to enroll their child in Sheridan House often describe it as one of the most crucial and challenging decisions of their lives—yet also one they never regret. Actions taken out of love, no matter how daunting, are divinely blessed. This sentiment is reflected in the words of Ephesians 6:4, “Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.” This verse encapsulates our shared hope and commitment to nurturing the well-being of our children through love, guidance, and faith.

Our residential team takes the boys to a local youth group every Wednesday night!
