A Family Legacy

Sheridan House celebrates the naming of the Barnes' Family Training Center

Sheridan House has been serving the community since 1968.

On December 6, 2024 we celebrated the Grand Opening of our new family training center and also honored Bob and Rosemary Barnes for 50 years of service. It was an amazing night of praise and worship as we celebrated the evening together. The new family training center will host marriage and parenting seminars, training classes for single moms, classrooms and a recreation area for the boys in the residential program.

It was an amazing night of praise and worship!

From this point on, the new family training center is now officially called The Barnes' Family Training Center

Bob and Rosemary Barnes have impacted so many families in their 50 years of service at Sheridan House. They have modeled to us all on how to do marriage, family and life. If you know Bob personally, you have probably heard him often mention the word legacy and its importance to the family unit. Bob has always preached to families about their legacy and he has said; "The names we put on the buildings at Sheridan House are not for you. They're for your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren!"

The Sheridan House board of directors proclaimed that the new family training center will officially be called The Barnes' Family Training Center in honor of Bob and Rosemary Barnes!

Hundreds of friends showed up to honor Bob and Rosemary for 50 years of service!

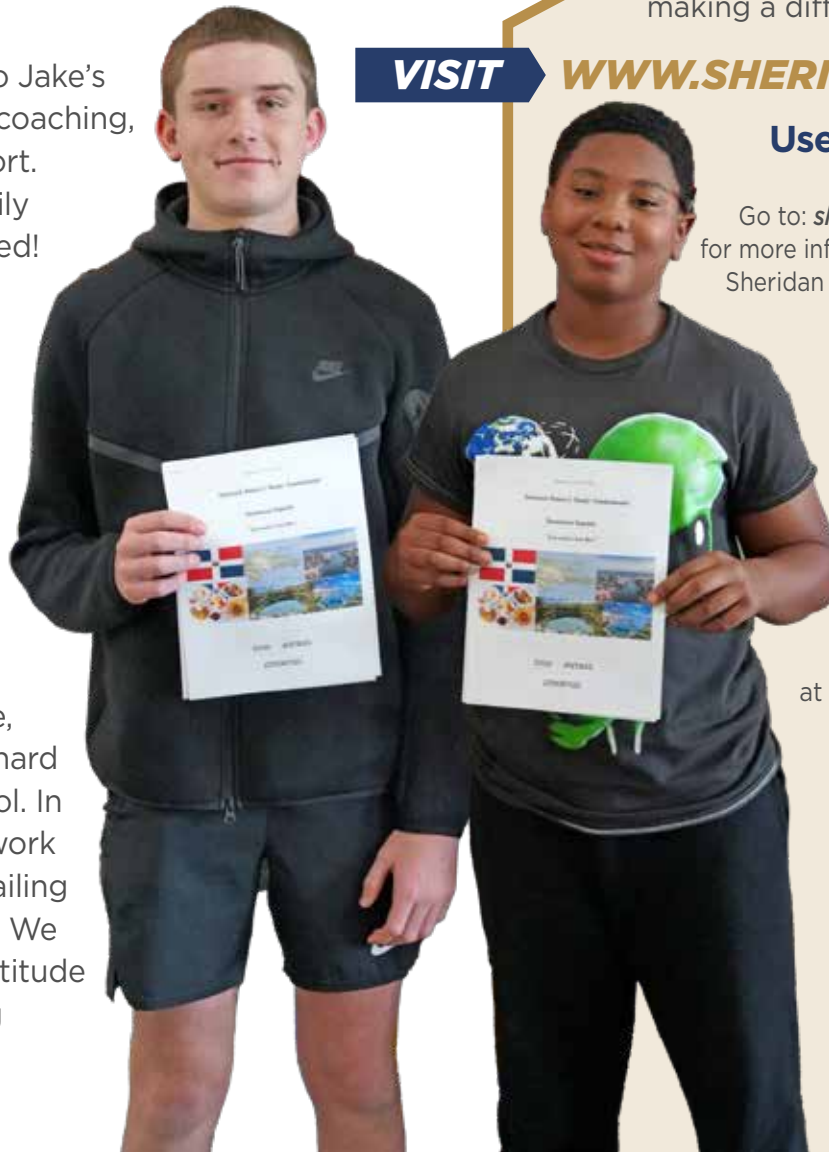

Most importantly, the Gospel will be shared to all in this new building!

Renewed Relationships in the Residential Program

When Jake began our program, he struggled with his home life. Jake's parents are divorced and have very different parenting styles. His frustration with home life manifested in unwanted behaviors, such as disrespect, lack of motivation, and negative attention seeking. Due to his adverse behaviors, a crack began forming in Jake's relationship with his mother. Despite turmoil at home, mom didn't give up hope on Jake and brought him to Sheridan House.

The staff poured into Jake's family with prayers, coaching, and academic support. A change in the family dynamics commenced! Dad is now more involved in Jake's progress in the program. Also, Jake and his mom are experiencing new breakthroughs with communication and trust. New, positive behaviors are emerging in Jake, such as motivation, hard work, and self-control. In addition, his schoolwork is thriving, from all failing grades to a 2.4 GPA. We know God has a multitude of triumphs awaiting Jake's family!
