Congratulations Graduates!

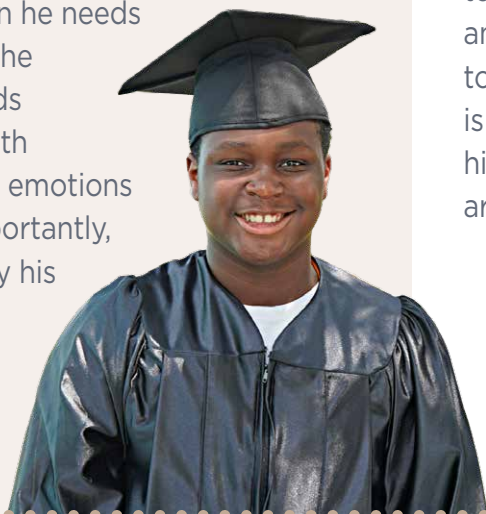

SHERIDAN HOUSE Honoring Christ by Serving the Needs of Children and Families

Please take a few minutes to read these life-changing stories about our May Graduates!

From Apathy to ALL IN

William entered the Sheridan House Residential Program with a hardened heart towards authority and hard work. He struggled academically and socially, often erupting in emotional outbursts with teachers and peers. Assignments were avoided, homework went undone, and deadlines were rarely met. His apathetic attitude about school flooded his home life, leaving his mom desperate for change—so she turned to Sheridan House.

After many months of growth, William is dedicated to the process of positive change. He finishes every school assignment, asking for support when he needs it. His progress is clear: he respects authority, builds healthy relationships with peers, and manages his emotions with maturity. Most importantly, William is eager to carry his newfound faith of God into the world, proudly sharing John 14:27 as his favorite bible verse.

From Wayward to Trustworthy

When Liam began the Sheridan House Residential Program, he was caught in a cycle of deception, theft, poor grades, insecurity, and impulsive behavior. Moreover, his communication was lacking respect for others as he constantly interrupted conversations and instigated conflict. His family was filled with love for him but did not trust his decisions, so they called the Sheridan House for help. Liam spent much of his time at the Sheridan House learning a new way to live. At home, he began to pay back the money he stole, gaining trust with his loved ones. In school, he continues learning how to wrangle his words and to speak kindly to others. His family is overjoyed to welcome him home with open arms!

From Broken Relationships to Restoration

When Andrew entered the Sheridan House Residential Program, his family was stuck in a season of discord. He was exhibiting impulsive behavior, verbal aggression, and a quick temper—straining relationships at home. At the same time, his parents struggled to align their parenting styles, creating a deep rift within the family. While Andrew excelled academically, he lacked the same commitment and discipline in his personal relationships. A turning point occurred at the Sheridan House when Andrew embraced the truth of Luke 9:23: “Deny yourself, take up your cross daily, and follow Jesus.” This scripture, along with hard work, accountability, and self-reflection, sparked motivation for transformation.

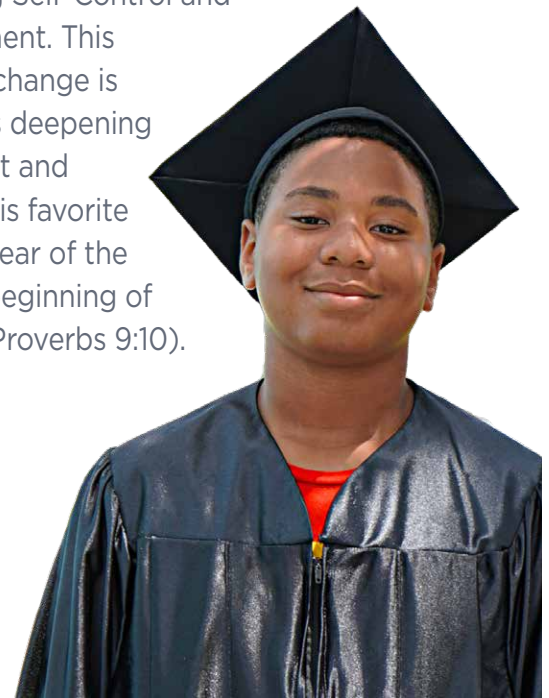

Andrew continues to grow in emotional maturity, learning to navigate relationships with respect, self-discipline, and clear communication.

His parents now have a united front to support their son as he journeys into the next chapter of his life.

to Accomplishment

Kendrick’s transformation while at the Sheridan House Residential Program is a powerful reflection of his growing relationship with Jesus. Although, he grew up in a Christian home with a loving father, Kendrick was caught in an emotional roller coaster—marked by anger, reactivity, and a sense of entitlement. At the Sheridan House, through dedication, focus, and a shift in priorities, Kendrick began learning how to regulate his responses and to pause before reacting. Recently, he even won an award for exemplifying Self-Control and Encouragement. This remarkable change is rooted in his deepening faith in Christ and marked by his favorite verse: “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom...” (Proverbs 9:10).
