An especially heartwarming aspect of the class was that a local church's generous gesture of blessing each mom with a bag of food. This thoughtful contribution enabled the participants to prepare nutritious breakfasts for their families, demonstrating a tangible expression of care and support. The bags were filled with wholesome ingredients, reflecting the church's commitment to nurturing both the physical and emotional well-being of our moms and their children. This act of kindness not only alleviated some of the immediate food insecurity but also reinforced the idea that they are not alone in their struggles.

Overall, the message and career support created a powerful atmosphere of hope and encouragement. The moms left feeling more empowered, equipped with new skills, and uplifted by the generosity of the church showed through their generous gift. One of the greatest responsibilities we have as a husband, wife and/or parent is to provide for and protect our family. Most of us do a pretty good job protecting our family, but what happens when we are not here? Who can legally make health care decisions for you if you are incapacitated? Who do you want to care for your children, your pets, and assets if the Lord takes you home early? How can you be sure your directives to these questions are executed?

We Can Help.

We are passionate about this because we've seen what happens to loved ones left behind when there's no plan.

Through a partnership with Financial Planning Ministry, we want to offer all of our supporters the opportunity to secure their loved one's future by planning ahead now, all at no cost to you!
